

The Big Story Week 6

Job 9

Read through Job 9:1-4. What is the problem that Job is facing?

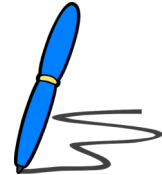

Read Job 9:5-12

List some of the ways that Job describes God.

How big is God and how small is Job?

Would you agree with what Job says in verse 14?

Look up these verses to see how Jesus meets Job's needs;

Hebrews 4:14-16 _____

1 Timothy 2:3-6 _____

John 6:37-40 _____

John 15:5-8 _____

Hebrews 7:23-25 _____

Job needs someone to help him to communicate with God. It needs to be someone who could help him to stand in God's presence. You can read this in Job 9:32-35. The NIV says he needs some to "arbitrate" for him. This means to make peace, to negotiate, mediate or act as a go-between.

Is this how you see Jesus?

Jesus is the bridge between us and God. Spend some time thanking Jesus for coming into our world in order that we can have our relationship with God restored.

When you have had a chance to do this, why not talk about it with your friends or family?
